GOSPEL-CENTERED SOLUTIONS TO HUNGER

Globally, 828 million people are chronically hungry because of war, famine, poverty and other serious issues. Rising global food prices also threaten to increase acute food insecurity.

From New York City to Ukraine to Thailand, people need hope.

Your gifts on Global Hunger Sunday equip Send Relief to fuel gospel-centered, sustainable solutions for hunger relief.

To Know Christ and to Make Him Known

Last year, your support made waves:

- 258,876 food packages distributed
- 1.1 million hot meals served
- 30,652 people trained in microenterprise, agriculture and other income-producing skills

And, most remarkably, 130,499 individuals found salvation in Christ.

Sunday, November 10—11:00 AM

Thank you, veterans!

On Veterans Day, we honor men and women who've served and sacrificed in one of America's armed services.

On November 11, 1918, America and her allies signed a truce with German leaders, ending World War I. In 1919, President Wilson decided the United States should remember with gratitude the end of that war and honor military members by marking Armistice Day, or "truce" day. In 1954, Congress changed the name to Veterans Day, honoring veterans of every era.

Veterans Day highlights our country's quest for peace, justice and freedom throughout the world. Followers of Jesus, the Prince of Peace, pray for unity among all nations and for the day when "nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war anymore" (Isaiah 2:4, NIV).

Come To Bethlehem

Sunday, December 8

10:30 AM and 5:00 PM

A Wonderful Community Event

Invite your family, neighbors, and friends

Come to Bethlehem is a Family event where for just a few minutes you step back into time and imagine what Bethlehem was like on the night our Savior was born.

Let us today go down to Bethlehem, and in company with wondering shepherds and adoring Magi, let us see him who was born King of the Jews, for we by faith can claim an interest in him, and can sing, "Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given." Jesus is Jehovah incarnate, our Lord and our God, and yet our brother and friend; let us adore and admire. ...

Let us reverently bow before the holy Child whose innocence restores to [humankind] its ancient glory; and let us pray that he may be formed in us, the hope of glory.

—C.H. Spurgeon, Morning and Evening

National Bible Week November 17-23

A Much-Needed Message

National Bible Week, now observed every Thanksgiving week, got its start on a turbulent day. Founders of the National Bible Association were reading Scripture over the NBC radio network on Sunday morning, December 7, 1941, when Pearl Harbor was attacked. Because of the traumatic events, the network asked that the Bible-reading continue all day, in between news updates. Radio stations throughout America picked up the programming, allowing countless listeners to receive words from God — "who comforts you" (Isaiah 51:12) — when they needed it most.

Present Tense

After "turkey day" came and went last year, a pastor challenged church members to ask one another not "How was your Thanksgiving?" but "How is your Thanksgiving?" After all, giving thanks should be an ongoing act.

That doesn't always need to be profoundly deep, either. A.J. Jacobs, author of Thanks a Thousand, once asked a philosophy-professor friend what he was grateful for. The shockingly simple reply? "Sometimes I'm just grateful I have arms." That odd but spot-on answer shows the importance, Jacobs says, of being "thankful for things so omnipresent that they can escape our notice."

So ... how is your Thanksgiving?
