IN MY FATHER'S FOOTSTEPS

Make this keepsake to express love for your dad or another special man this Father's Day.

What you need:

- White construction paper (11" x 13" sheet)
- Pencil
- Black permanent marker
- Crayons or paint

What you do:

1. In the center of the paper, trace your foot in pencil. Darken the outline with marker.
2. Color or paint the footprint. Let it dry.
3. Trace your father's foot (same side) on top of your footprint (with yours in the middle of his).
4. Color or paint his footprint. Let it dry.
5. Sign your names and the date at the bottom.

Thoughts on Father's Day

Father's Day is a time to appreciate and honor the men who have played a significant role in our lives, whether as fathers, grandfathers, or other male figures who have guided and supported us. It's a day to reflect on their strength, wisdom, and love, and to express gratitude for all they have done.

Reflecting on their impact:

Role models and mentors:

Many fathers have been role models, demonstrating strength, resilience, and a strong work ethic. They have also provided guidance and support, helping us navigate life's challenges.

Unconditional love and support:

Fathers often offer unwavering love and support, regardless of the circumstances. They are frequently the first point of contact for children in need, offering comfort and reassurance.

Guidance and wisdom:

Fathers often share their wisdom and life experiences, helping their children make sound decisions and navigate the complexities of adulthood.

Expressing gratitude and appreciation:

Words of appreciation:

A heartfelt thank you, a loving hug, or a simple "I love you" can go a long way in showing a father how much they are appreciated.

Small gestures:

A handwritten card, a thoughtful gift, or a special activity can show a father that you care about him.

Spending quality time:

Spending quality time with your father, whether it's enjoying a meal together, going on a hike, or simply having a conversation, can strengthen your bond.

Beyond Father's Day:*Acknowledge their ongoing contributions:

Remember to appreciate the contributions of fathers throughout the year, not just on Father's Day.

Show appreciation for their sacrifices:

Recognize the sacrifices that fathers often make for their families, whether it's working long hours or putting their own needs aside.

Encourage healthy relationships:

Foster positive and healthy relationships with fathers, as they play a crucial role in shaping children's lives.

An Encouraging Word

The Bible repeatedly encourages Christians to encourage one another. How can you tell when someone needs encouragement? The answer is easy, said Chick-fil-A founder Truett Cathy: if they're breathing! He quipped, "I get a lot of encouragement, but I never got an overdose."

Offering encouragement is a simple yet powerful way to make a significant impact. Two esteemed Christian writers call encouragers angelic and godly. George MacDonald said, "If, instead of a gem or even a flower, we could cast the gift of a lovely thought into the heart of a friend, that would be giving as the angels give." And G.K. Chesterton said, "If I can put one touch of rosy sunset into the life of any man or woman, I shall feel that I have worked with God."

Who in your life might need an encouraging word today?

HOW TO OBSERVE CHILDREN'S DAY

Spending time with the children in our lives is an easy way to show them how much we cherish them. Make it your mission to seize the opportunity and spend time with them.

- Start new traditions.
- Explore the outdoors.
- Tell family stories.
- Be creative through art or music.
- Teach them something new.
- Open your heart to new ideas.
- Listen to your children.
- Seek adventure with your children.
- Break out of old routines.
- Pursue new opportunities with your children.
