To Know Christ and to Make Him Known

Over the past few months as I have dealt with Victorious Living and Sanctification, some have struggled with their past. A recent article by Chuck Lawless, Professor at Southeast Theological Seminary, provides some excellent Biblical insights.

Four Steps to Take when Yesterday's Sin Haunts You

Maybe you've been there. The accuser of the brothers and sisters (Revelation 12:10) pounds at you because of yesterday's sin, and you struggle to live in freedom. Maybe these steps will help you:

1. Make sure you've truly repented.

Have you, in the power of God, truly turned from your sin? If not, yesterday's sin might continue to haunt you because it is, in fact, today's

2. Talk with a trusted Christian friend or pastor.

Simply being honest with somebody "with flesh on" can help you trust God's forgiveness.

3. Know and trust the Word of God.

Particularly its teachings about what God does with our sins. Know these many texts, and believe them:

- He has separated us from our sin an immeasurable distance: "As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us" (Psalm 103:12).
- He has dropped our sins to the bottom of the ocean: "You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea" (Micah 7:19b).
- He has blotted out our sin: "It is I who blot out your transgressions for My own sake" (Isaiah 43:25b).
- He remembers our sin no more: "For I will forgive their wrongdoing and never again remember their sin" (Jeremiah 31:34b).

- He has cleansed our sins: "Though your sins are like scarlet, they will be as white as snow; though they are as red as crimson, they will be like wool" (Isaiah 1:18).
- He has cast our sin behind His back: "for You have thrown all my sins behind Your back" (Isaiah 38:17).
- He has forgiven and covered our sins: "How joyful are those whose lawless acts are forgiven and whose sins are covered!" (Romans 4:7).
- He does not count our sin against us: "That is, in Christ, God was reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them" (2 Corinthians 5:19).
- He laid all our sin upon His Son: "We all went astray like sheep; we all have turned to our own way; and the Lord has punished Him for the iniquity of us all" (Isaiah 53:6).
- He takes away our sin: "The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, 'Here is the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!'" (John 1:29).

4. Thank God for His forgiving grace.

Genuine gratitude can go a long way toward breaking bondages to yesterday's sin. Cry out like the tax collector in Jesus' parable in Luke 18 ("God, have mercy on me, a sinner")—and thank Him for His grace.

May the Lord grant us daily victory!
